

Iceland Training Schedule

1. og 2. Juni 2016

Trainers – Chris Newlin and Scott Modell will provide the training, and both have extensive background in child maltreatment and developmental disabilities. Chris Newlin is Executive Director of the National Children’s Advocacy Center in Huntsville, AL. Scott Modell is the Deputy Commissioner of the State of Tennessee Department of Children’s Services.

Wednesday, June 1

Schedule:

0900-1030	Introductions, Disability Perceptions, and Overview of Developmental Disabilities
1030-1045	Break
1045-1200	Co-occurrence of developmental disabilities and child maltreatment including child fatality, including research data
1200-1300	Lunch
1300-1430	Unique characteristics of children with intellectual, physical, and communication disabilities that increase the risk of abuse
1430-1445	Break
1445-1600	Forensic interview techniques for use in the investigative and legal environments to optimize communication with children with disabilities.

Thursday, June 2

Schedule:

0900-1030	Creating awareness among staff and detecting possible abuse of clients
1030-1045	Break
1045-1200	Risk factors for various types of abuse
1200-1300	Lunch
1300-1430	Safety/Prevention strategies to reduce risk for abuse
1430-1445	Break
1445-1600	Overview of existing system of intervention for child maltreatment in Iceland Immediate response to clients and families where abuse is suspected